

please protect the ham radio bands by not allowing broadband over powerlines. it will create too much back ground noise to make many of the band usable. i want this rf noise for my hobby or to have eveyone in my house exposed to it constantly.